ST. HENRY ROCKFORD

We Democrats of the south part of Mercer County would like to know what the trouble is with the Democrats in Celina and the north part of the county. The Observer of last week says that you have the silliest crowds and least enthusiasm of any political gatherings they ever heard of. Why, we had a Democratic meeting last Saturday evening in St. Henry, held in the township house, size of building 30x50, and every seat was occupied. This is the kind of Democrats we have down here. Wake up, brothers, get enthused. Get every Democrat out that can vote; let no one stay at home. Be one of the pushers and get them out early, then you will have this off your mind. If you do not attend the meetings you will miss a great deal of educational work. Mr. Harmon has performed a great service for the people, and we want him continued on the job.

The St. Henry Band was out on Saturday evening for the first time before the public. They played six or seven pieces for the opening of the Democratic campaign for Granville township and received hearty applause and many personal praises for their good work in such short time.

Street Commissioner Gardner is busy getting our streets in as good condition as they were a few years ago, before we put in our water-works. Then we were considered as having the best streets of any village in Mercer County. In a short time they will be back in their original shape, equal to any and excelled by none.

FAIRVIEW

OBITUARY

Thomas Jackson Carmichael, son of Thomas and Barbara Carmichael, was born in Licking County, Ohio, May 22, 1848; died October 20, 1910, age 62 years, 4 months, and 28 days.

In 1862, when 19 years of age, he enlisted for service in the Civil War, and was assigned to Company F, 95th Regiment Ohio Vol. Inf., in which he served until January, 1865. His regiment was with the army in Middle Tennessee under General U. S. Grant, and he participated in a number of serious battles and severe skirmishes. At Richmond, Ky., he was not only severely injured, but was captured by Gen. Kirby Smith's soldiers and was imprisoned at that place.

His wound was such that he was soon paroled and taken to Camp Chase Hospital, Columbus, Ohio, where he was confined from September, 1862, until January 15, 1863, when he was discharged on account of his disability, received in the line of duty, a most honorable distinction. He was a musician in the company, and played the drum.

In the year 1867 he was married to Sarah J. Brown, sister of the late John Brown of Delaware County, Ohio, and in 1871 he moved to his present home in Mercer County, Ohio, where he lived with his wife and their early years were passed in the toil and pleasure incident to pioneer life, and with hard work and simple joys. He and his wife fought life's battles well together, and died peacefully, leaving eight children—six daughters and two sons. Two of the daughters died in early life. His wife died of cancer of the stomach, and he died of cancer of the stomach, and he died of cancer of the stomach.

He was a member of the Christian Church and a member of the G. A. R. He was a kind father, providing well for his family. As a husband he was tender and loving. He was a good neighbor, and among men he was known for his integrity. In his last days and during his sickness he expressed himself as having made the necessary preparation for death and often told his loved ones that he was ready to go if he should be called. During sickness he was very patient though suffering great pain. He was never heard to complain of his lot.

He fought bravely for his life, but the disease proved too strong, and after seven months of suffering death conquered.

The Snug Fitting Coat Collar—It's Clothcraft!

THE coat collar is one of the things that make a hit with you when you wear Clothcraft. It sits up to your collar as if molded to it.

But it is only one of the Clothcraft points of superiority. There's the style—the shape—the non-breakable coat front—the non-sagging pockets.

And there's the guaranty of the maker—and ourselves—that Clothcraft is pure All-Wool—nothing else.

Yet you get your Clothcraft suit at $10 to $25. Wouldn't it be foolish to take a chance with ordinary clothes—when you can get Clothcraft with the guaranty—for the same or less.
